HOOSIER NOTES.

Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis Journal, writing up Indiana congressman says this: "Judge Lowry, of Fort Wayne, will be another busy member during the session. He has shown a good deal of alacrity and a large degree of success in the matter of securing federal appointments for his constituents, and says he intends to exert as much energy as possible in procuring legislation for his people. He will have a large number of bills to introduce, but they will be mostly for pensions. His public building at Fort Wayne has been provided for. The judge is called a very hard worker."

Representative Matson will introduce, at the first call of states, bills amending the constitution, so as to provide for the election of postmasters by the people, and increasing the pensions of union soldiers' widows from $8 to $12 a month; also, repealing the limitation of payment of arrears of pensions.

Judge Woods only gets a salary of $3,000 a year and has to hold court at three cities in the state at his own expense. Wm. Clear, an excellent young man and formerly captain of the Ninth ward democratic club, has been appointed mail-carrier to succeed George Kamm. Mr. Clear was highly endorsed. J. B. White has given the Mayer house property, just purchased from C. H. Nix for $35,000, to D. C. Fisher to sell off in 20x60 lots fronting on Calhoun street. Mr. White reserves sixty feet in the rear for himself and does not know what he will do with it. The property is desirable and will find ready sale at a snug profit for Mr. White.

The Van Wert polo team quickly defeated the Fort Wayne boys in a game of polo at the Princess rink last night. A large and very genteel assembly witnessed the sport and hundreds whirled on rollers. Skating is certainly more popular than ever. The next attraction is base ball on rollers by the famous Henley nine, of Richmond.

"The FORT WAYNE SENTINEL says that Senator Voorhees, in a recent interview, named Judge Lowry as one of the men likely to fill Hon. T. A. Hendricks' place in political life. The judge is certainly coming to the front as one of the leaders of Indiana democracy. He will make a formidable candidate for senator in '86," says the Goshen Democrat.

Mr. W. P. Breen tells us that the famous suit of Woodworth vs. Evans involving the debts of A. S. Evans & Co., will be settled to-day or to-morrow, by Mr. Evans paying over some $40,000 to cancel the claims against his old Fort Wayne house. The money is in the Hamilton National bank and will be counted out when ordered by Judge Woods.

The building season is over here and as a contractor remarks, "I never recollect a more favorable early winter for finishing work." The outlook at present is flattering for a busy season in the building line next year. Two new railroads are certain to meet here next summer and seek a route through the city.

Two genteel "drunks" were bagged by the police last night. Christ Newcomb, a guest of the Commercial house, was intoxicated and Officer Fuchshuber locked him up. Fisher stops at the Rich house and paid $13 without a murmur.

BLOODY RIOT.

Non-union Miners Assaulted by a Masked Mob.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 10.—At Pine Run, about one mile below Elizabeth, Pa., was the scene of another riot this morning between the striking coal miners and men who have been working at the reduced wages. About half past 3 when twenty-five miners were on their way to work in Lynn's mines, a squad of 200 masked men met them and demanded they return to their homes. They refused to do so and the mob made an attack upon them with clubs, sticks and stones.

The riot lasted two hours, and ten men were injured and one of them, Newton Campbell, a driver, was beaten to insensibility. His injuries are believed to be fatal. Two others were also seriously injured. The others got away with slight cuts and bruises. The non-unionists were driven off. The mob turned the switch of the private coal road running to the mine, and disappeared over the hill. The train coming along was thrown from the track. The engine overturned but no one was hurt. At 11 o'clock Sheriff Grady, with a posse, left for the scene. The mob is believed to be the one organized to visit all mines to day where men are working at the reduction.

A THIEF

Is Hung By Indignant South-erners.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

KENTON, Tenn., Dec. 10.—About two o'clock Tuesday morning, two clerks in the store of White & Boyle, were awakened by a suffocating smoke and discovered the store on fire. A thief had stolen some goods and fired the house. The flames were extinguished. Soon after Sam. Fowler, a colored ex-convict, was caught with the stolen goods in his possession, and he was promptly jailed. Yesterday morning his dead body was found dangling from the limb of a tree where a mob during the night had hanged him.

Governor Gray and Secretary Meyers at Washington.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 10.—Governor Gray has gone to Washington on private business and to look after the swamp land interest of this state. He is trying to get for the state all the lands that the field notes and plats of survey on file in the department at Washington show were wet lands at the time of the donation of the swamp lands to the state by the government and has appointed Hon. William E. Meloy of Washington, to make a complete examination of the records. The governor feels confident that he will succeed in recovering several thousand acres of land for the state. He expects to be absent about a week and H. H. Frances, of Michigan City, accompanies him.

State Secretary Meyers is in Washington. A special dispatch credits him with saying that while he would like to go back to congress, Bynum had proven himself capable and efficient and is deserving of a second term, and under the circumstances he will not oppose him. Captain Meyers also intimates that Will English will be a candidate.

HANDY MEN.

The Program of the Coming Inter-State "Mill" to Occur Here.

In sporting circles great interest is manifested in the glove contest booked for the Academy, December 18. Harry Hamill has interested himself in the matter and tells us that James O. McCoy, now special officer at the Metropolitan, and Fred J. Daily, of Grand Rapids, will open the exercises. Tom O'Donnell, heavy weight champion of Michigan, and Terry Kelly, both of Grand Rapids, come up next. Then follows James Carlyle, of Pontiac, and Billy Butts, of Grand Rapids; Burt Jackson and Charley Murray, of Dayton, and Jimmie Doyle and James Mahon, of Fort Wayne. Billy Striker, of Wagoner's old saloon, will stand up against a Michigan man and close the evening's sport. It is estimated that five hundred strangers will come to Fort Wayne, and either Charley Chase, of Toledo, or Charley Anderson, of this city, will referee the contests with soft gloves.

A GOOD SERVANT.

Mr. D. A. Woodworth Leaves the City a Full Fledged Lawyer --His Public Career.

This morning Mr. D. A. Woodworth was admitted to practice at the Allen county bar. He has been a close student of law for years and passed a very creditable examination. Mr. August Lankeau was yesterday sworn in as first assistant postmaster and Mr. Woodworth handed this letter to Postmaster Wm. Kaough:

FORT WAYNE, Dec. 8, 1885.

Wm. Kaough, Esq., Postmaster, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

My Dear Sir—In tendering you herewith my resignation as assistant postmaster, I feel it to be my duty to state that my relations with you during the past few months have been so pleasant that I would be glad if my health and business arrangements would permit, to accept of your invitation (many times made me) to remain until next spring.

I feel, however, that I have faithfully fulfilled my contract to so instruct my successor that he can take upon himself the duties and responsibilities of my official position in an intelligent manner. This, I believe, he can now do, and the reason for my remaining longer does not exist. I feel that your administration will be a success, and I shall always retain a deep interest in this office, where so many of the better years of my life have been passed.

Yours respectfully,
D. A. WOODWORTH.

It is unnecessary to say that Mr. Kaough reciprocates the kind feeling in which Mr. Woodworth couches his withdrawal from the government service. Mr. Kaough regards him as one of the most trustworthy and honorable men he ever met and his best wishes go west with Gus. Mr. Woodworth went into the post office in 1872, when George W. Durgau was a defaulter for $5,000. He at once straightened the finances and an inspection of his work twice a year, since that time, by government experts, has failed to discover a cent to stray from his careful control. Mr. Woodworth has handled every penny of ten million dollars since he entered the postoffice and to see him go out clean and straight is worth extended notice from THE SENTINEL, even though he differed with us in politics. Mr. Woodworth leaves for the west to-night and will locate in Kansas City. The best wishes of a host of friends go with him.

THEY CHARGE FRAUD.

The Creditors of A. Salinger File a Suit to Set Aside the Preferred Debts, Charged Fraud.

The following suit was filed in the circuit court yesterday morning at Lafayette: Michael Heidelberg, Nathan Coleman, Lewis Rosenstock vs. Adolph Salinger, Amelia Salinger, Leopold Fecheheimer, Henry Fecheheimer, Daniel Keifer, Martin Holstein, Rose Salinger, Pauline Kaufman, Amelia Joel, George Salinger, Frank Salinger and Mortimer Levering, assignees of Adolph Salinger.

The plaintiffs, Michael Heidelberg, Nathan Coleman and Lewis Rosenstock, who now are partners, trading under the firm name of Heidelberg & Co., in the city of Baltimore, Md., complain of the defendants and say that on July 29, '85, Adolph Salinger purchased of them merchandise to the amount of $864.75. They charge him with fraudulently conveying and mortgaging his property to cheat them and others. They charge he shipped his goods to a branch house at Fort Wayne, managed by his sons. They want the Salinger mortgage and conveyance set aside and have engaged Harrison, Miller & Elam, Morris & Newberger, Chase & Chase and John F. McHugh, to back their claim.

The Stock Market Declines Perceptibly.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—There was an irregular opening at the stock exchange this morning, but in the majority of cases the first prices were down $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. During the first hour the market was feverish, irregular and a slight decline was followed by rally in Lakawanna to 128, but the general list was weak almost from opening and during the first half hour sold off $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The decline was checked by 10:30 and was followed by a slight recovery but later there was renewed weakness and at 11 o'clock the market was weak and active at or near the lowest figures of the morning.

Wabash employes on the I. P. & C. division are wondering whether they are responsible to the bondholders or to the Wabash receivers. The Columbia City shooting tournament has fallen through with for the present; that is, the hunter's tournament has been postponed from the 28th and 29th of this month to some future time. It was feared that the weather would be too cold and there is no place in the fair ground where fires could be made to keep the people warm. The new dates will be announced in good time.

An excited granger rushed into the county clerks office yesterday holding a will. "It is all right now," said he. Last April he filed the last will and testament of Peter J. Heuganard. The old gentleman was not dead then and in fact he did not shuffle off 'till last Friday. The excited visitor was the husband of Arsene Grenaux to whom Heuganard willed his property after his wife's death.

The object of this fair is to endeavor to raise money to fit up the upper Temple rooms for the occupancy of the various Masonic bodies of the city. The sale of seats for Rev. Talmage's lecture, next Tuesday evening, will begin at the Temple on Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, and by special arrangement will continue without interruption (except on Sunday) until Tuesday evening. A great deal of interest is manifested in this lecture, and many visitors from suburban towns are expected, and this arrangement for the sale of seats has been made to accommodate everybody who may wish to attend. The price of tickets has been placed at the very low rate of seventy-five cents, and in this our people are most fortunate, as the usual charge to hear this great preacher is from $1 to $1.50 for reserved seats.

HOOSIER NOTES.

Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis Journal, writing up Indiana congressmen says this: "Judge Lowry, of Fort Wayne, will be another busy member during the session. He has shown a good deal of activity and a large degree of success in the matter of securing federal appointments for his constituents, and says he intends to exert as much energy as possible in procuring legislation for his people. He will have a large number of bills to introduce, but they will be mostly for pensions. His public building at Fort Wayne has been provided for. The judge is called a very hard worker."

Representative Matson will introduce, at the first call of states, bills amending the constitution, so as to provide for the election of postmasters by the people, and increasing the pensions of union soldiers' widows from $8 to $12 a month; also, repealing the limitation of payment of arrears of pensions.

The Van Wert polo team quickly defeated the Fort Wayne boys in a game of polo at the Princess rink last night. A large and very genteel assembly witnessed the sport and hundreds whirled on rollers. "The Fort Wayne SENTINEL says that Senator Voorhees, in a recent interview, named Judge Lowry as one of the men likely to fill Hon. T. A. Hendricks' place in political life. BLOODY RIOT.

Non-union Miners Assaulted by a Masked Mob.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—At Pine Run, about one mile below Ellettsburgh, Pa., was the scene of another riot this morning between the striking coal miners and men who have been working at the reduced wages. About half past 3 when twenty-five miners were on their way to work in Lynn's mines, a squad of 200 masked men met them and demanded they return to their homes. They refused to do so and the mob made an attack upon them with clubs, sticks and stones.

The riot lasted two hours, and ten men were injured and one of them, Newton Campbell, a driver, was beaten to insensibility. His injuries are believed to be fatal. Two others were also seriously injured. The others got away with slight cuts and bruises. The non-unionists were driven off. The mob turned the switch of the private coal road running to the mine, and disappeared over the hill. The train coming along was thrown from the track. The engine overturned but no one was hurt. At 11 o'clock Sheriff Grady, with a posse, left for the scene. The mob is believed to be the one organized to visit all mines to day where men are working at the reduction.

Yesterday morning his dead body was found dangling from the limb of a tree where a mob during the night had hanged him.

Governor Gray and Secretary Meyers at Washington.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 10.—Governor Gray has gone to Washington on private business and to look after the swamp land interest of this state. He is trying to get for the state all the lands that the field notes and plats of survey on file in the department at Washington show were wet lands at the time of the donation of the swamp lands to the state by the government and has appointed Hon. William E. Meloy of Washington, to make a complete examination of the records. The governor feels confident that he will succeed in recovering several thousand acres of land for the state. He expects to be absent about a week and H. H. Francis, of Michigan City, accompanies him.

State Secretary Meyers is in Washington. A special dispatch credits him with saying that while he would like to go back to congress, Indiana had proven himself capable and efficient and is deserving of a second term, and under the circumstances he will not oppose him. Captain Meyers also intimates that Will English will be a candidate.

HANDY MEN.

The Program of the Coming Inter-State "M.H." to Occur Here.

In sporting circles great interest is manifested in the glove contest booked for the Academy, December 18. Harry Hammond has interested himself in the matter and tells us that James C. McCoy, now special officer at the Metropolitan, and Fred J. Daly, of Grand

Then follows James Carlyle, of Pontiac, and Billy Butte, of Grand Rapids; Burt Jackson and Charley Murray, of Dayton, and Jimmie Doyle and James Mahou, of Fort Wayne. Billy Striker, of Wagner's old saloon, will stand up against a Michigan man and close the evening's sport. It is estimated that five hundred strangers will come to Fort Wayne, and either Charley Chase, of Toledo, or Charley Anderson, of this city, will referee the contests with soft gloves.

A GOOD SERVANT.

Mr. D. A. Woodworth Leaves the City a Full Fledged Lawyer—His Public Career.

This morning Mr. D. A. Woodworth was admitted to practice at the Allen county bar. He has been a close student of law for years and passed a very creditable examination. Mr. August Lankau was yesterday sworn in as first assistant postmaster and Mr. Woodworth handed this letter to Postmaster Wm. Kaough:

FORT WAYNE, Dec. 8, 1885. Wm. Kaough, Esq., Postmaster, Fort Wayne, Indiana.
My Dear Sir:—In tendering you herewith my resignation as assistant postmaster, I feel it to be my duty to state that my relations with you during the past few months have been so pleasant that I would be glad if my health and business arrangements would permit, to accept of your invitation (many times made me) to remain until next spring. I feel, however, that I have faithfully fulfilled my contract to so instruct my successor that he can take upon himself the duties and responsibilities of my official position in an intelligent manner. This, I believe, he can now do, and the reason for my remaining longer does not exist. I feel that your administration will be a success, and I shall always retain a deep interest in this office, where so many of the better years of my life have been passed.

Yours respectfully,

D. A. Woodworth.

It is unnecessary to say that Mr. Kaough reciprocates the kind feeling in which Mr. Woodworth couches his withdrawal from the government service. Mr. Kaough regards him as one of the most trustworthy and honorable men he ever met and his best wishes go with him. Mr. Woodworth went into the post office in 1872, when George W. Durgan was a defaulter for $5,000. He at once straightened the finances and an inspection of his work twice a year, since that time, by government experts, has failed to discover a cent to stray from his careful control. Mr. Woodworth has handled every penny of ten million dollars since he entered the postoffice and to see him go out clean and straight is worth extended notice from THE SENTINEL, even though he differed with us in politics. Mr. Woodworth leaves for the west to-night and will locate in Kansas City. The best wishes of a host of friends go with him.

THEY CHARGE FRAUD.
The Creditors of A. Salinger File a Suit to Set Aside the Preferred Debts, Charging Fraud.

The following suit was filed in the circuit court yesterday morning at Lafayette: Michael Heidelbergberger, Nathan Coleman, Lewis Rosenstock vs. Adolph Salinger, Amelia Salinger, Leopold Fecheimer, Henry Fecheimer, Daniel Keifer, Martin Holstein, Rose Salinger, Pauline Kaufman, Amelia Joel, George Salinger, Frank Salinger and Mortimer Salinger, assignees of Adolph Salinger.

The plaintiffs, Michael Heidelbergberger, Nathan Coleman and Lewis Rosenstock, who now are partners, trading under the firm name of Heidelbergberger & Co., in the city of Baltimore, Md., complain of the defendants and say that on July 29, '85, Adolph Salinger purchased of them merchandise to the amount of $864.75. They charge him with fraudulently conveying and mortgaging his property to cheat them and others. They charge he shipped his goods to a branch house at Fort Wayne, managed by his sons. They want the Salinger mortgage and conveyances set aside and have engaged Harrison, Miller & Elam, Morris & Newberger, Chase & Chase and John P. MoHug, to back their claim.

The Stock Market Declines Perceptibly.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—There was an irregular opening at the stock exchange this morning, but in the majority of cases the first prices were down 1 to 4 per cent. During the first hour the market was feverish, irregular and a slight decline was followed by rally in Lakawanna to 128, but the general list was weak almost from opening and during the first half hour sold off 1 to 1 per cent. The decline was checked by 10:30 and was followed by a slight recovery but later there was renewed weakness and at 11 o'clock the market was weak and active at or near the lowest figures of the morning.
